The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

360 months. This term consists of 360 months on each of Counts 1 and 16 of the Indictment, to be served concurrently.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline §5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established an inability to pay any fine.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 5 years. This term consists of 5 years on each of Counts 1 and 16 of the Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04.

5. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Office.
6. The defendant shall not associate with anyone known to the defendant to be a member of the MS-13, Centrales clique, and/or Mexican Mafia Gang and others known to the defendant to be participants in the MS-13, Centrales clique, and/or Mexican Mafia Gang's criminal activities, with the exception of the defendant's family members. The defendant may not wear, display, use or possess any gang insignias, emblems, caps, hats, jackets, or any other clothing that defendant knows evidence affiliation with the MS-13, Centrales clique, and/or Mexican Mafia, and may not display any signs or gestures that defendant knows evidence affiliation with the MS-13, Centrales clique, and/or Mexican Mafia.
7. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to the defendant to be a location where members of the MS-13, Centrales clique, and/or Mexican Mafia Gang meet or assemble.
8. The defendant shall submit the defendant's person, property, house, residence, vehicle, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.
9. The defendant shall not commit any violation of local, state, or federal law or ordinance.
10. The defendant shall comply with the immigration rules and regulations of the United States, and if deported from this country, either voluntarily or involuntarily, not reenter the United States illegally. The defendant is not required to report to the Probation & Pretrial Services Office while residing outside of the United States; however, within 72 hours of release from any custody or any reentry to the United States during the period of Court-ordered supervision, the defendant shall report for instructions to the United States Probation Office located at: the 300 N. Los Angeles Street, Suite 1300, Los Angeles, CA 90012-3323.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the Court shall impose a sentence sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the purposes set forth in paragraph (2) of this subsection. The Court, in determining the particular sentence to be imposed, shall consider --

1. The nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and characteristics of the defendant;
2. The need for the sentence imposed --
 - a. To reflect the seriousness of the offense; to promote respect for the law, and to provide just punishment for the offense;
 - b. To afford adequate deterrence to future conduct;
 - c. To protect the public from further crimes of the defendant; and
 - d. To provide the defendant with needed educational or vocational training, medical care, or other correctional treatment in the most effective manner.

5. The need to avoid unwarranted sentence disparities among defendants with similar records who have been found guilty of similar conduct.

USA vs. Jose Balmore RomeroDocket No.: CR 17-00278-ODW-1
